District 21 - Central Coast

Freemasons helping Wallarah Community Band

On Sunday 17th November Freemasons on the Central Coast attended the Annual Concert of the Wallarah Community Band held at The Wyong Golf Club.

The concert was a huge success with the band (42 musicians on the day!) playing a diverse range of musical styles including classical, Latin American, jazz and popular.

Freemasons on the Central Coast have supported the Wallarah Community Band since November 2018 with the purchase of musical instruments for young members who love music and want to develop their skills and musicianship but can't afford to purchase instruments.

$2,000
Donated to date.
